Math

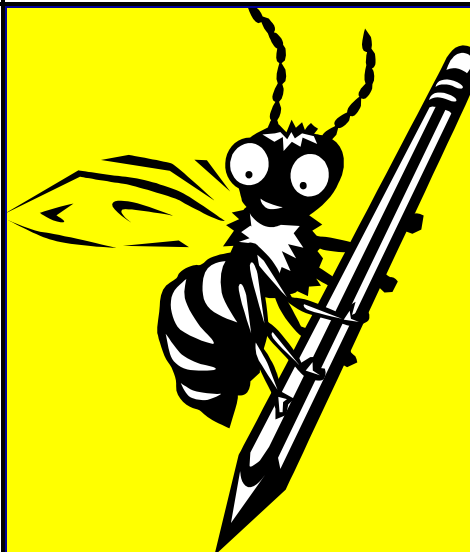

The students will finishing our discussion on the relationship between addition and subtraction, and moving on to mastering money. During this unit students will be expected to count all the different types of currency as well as add and subtract different amounts.

Reading

The students will be reading Theme 5: Poetry

We will continue discussing the different types of poetry and writing our own poetry. This students will read poems and try to comprehend meaning and main idea.

Teacher's Corner

Dear Parents,

Money can often be a struggle with students. Please be sure to help them at home. Let me know if you feel your child will need additional work.

Thanks,
Mr. Zebro

Writing

Students will be keeping a daily journal. Our journal should follow our theme, with some free writing. During our theme the students will be writing poems using the different techniques they have been reading about.

Science

SW discuss Chapter 4: Living Things

Students will be discussing about the difference between living and non-living things. Students will be writing about what they need to do to keep their plants alive.
